WALLCOVERING
On the walls of the study is the 'Machin' by a Frenchman's painterly 'Trompe l'oeil' paper-backed silk wallcovering in the upper corners was hand-painted with trompe l'oeil patterns to create a deep, distancing effect. It costs £127 a square metre. www.machin.com

LIGHTING
The living hall of vintage lighting has interior designer Steve Gaskell sourced from Paris and Los Angeles-based Range. TABLE
The glass-topped table with leather inlay was created by London Marble using 'Jacket Verde' by Swann and lighter Verde Lucerne marbles. Stacey says he was 'inspired by old great houses in Belgium and England - I wanted to add some bold colour to the flat'. £200-3000. www.londonmarble.com

SCULPTURE
Sam Okunade Miller's 'Unended Mirror III' presents one of the final pieces in the hallway, leading visitors to a room filled with art and sculptural objects. Having grown up observing the family's commercial business, the artist says he believes 'the skill of working with silver is the understanding of reflection'. This piece measures 122 x 112 x 10cm and costs £12,000. www.galleryfrance.com

STATELY CELEBRATIONS
