

LORFORDS

Late 19th Century Indonesian Batak Toba Chest

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Late 19th Century Indonesian Batak Toba domestic chest/child's bed.

With a sliding top and stylised head corner with Singa creature pillars, found in Noble houses.

Dating to the latter part of the 19th Century to the early 20th Century.

A similar chest is on exhibition in The Micheal C Rockefeller Wing of the Metropolitan Museum, New York.

Provence; UK collector purchased this item in Jakarta, Indonesia in the early 1990s, when residing in Indonesia.

DIMENSIONS

Width	153.000000
Height	69.000000
Depth	65.000000