Napoleon III Painted Iron Bed

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Beautiful and very decorative iron bed, dating to the 19th Century.

This charming bed demonstrates extraordinary attention to detail and opulence, causing one to wonder who it once belonged to.

It is embellished with swags and tassels, and has feet in the form of dolphins. Gilded crests to the headboard and footboard.

Painted panels frequent the frame, portraying alpine scenes, flowers and a faded image of a lady. The panel to the footboard is particularly eye-catching.

With small proportions, this bed could be placed against the wall and used as a unique and striking daybed.

This wonderful piece is originally from the Alpine region of France.
