Large Georgian Style Foot Stool

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Large, well drawn 19th Century mahogany footstool.

Georgian style was heavily revived in both the 19th and 20th Centuries and its fashion has truly stood the test of time.

This footstool features thick, beautifully carved cabriole legs terminating in pad feet and decorative carving to the central motif.

Georgian style represents the apogee of English furniture design, and this piece would look equally effective in a contemporary apartment as it would in a period home.

Reupholstered to a high standard.
