19th Century French Gilt Wood Chair

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

A good quality 19th Century French giltwood upholstered fauteuil.

This chair features the open arms and carved wood structure that signifies the fauteuil armchair, which became an emblem of the 'golden age' of the French monarchy under Louis XIV, Louis XV and Louis XVI.

This chair is especially exemplary of the Louis XV style, with its sinuous, subtle curves and cabriole legs with upturned scroll feet. It is feminine and elegant, with carved floral motifs to the top, apron and legs.

Upholstered in an attractive rose pink floral fabric, this chair would look stunning in a drawing room or sitting area.
