Part of our Lorfords Contemporary made-to-order Collection. This is a twist on our ever popular Elmstead model which we pared down into a comfortable and classic armchair. This version has an integral back cushion, or 'down back', giving it a plumper silhouette with more support. A nod to a traditional Regency style, but with contemporary reworking, the clean, curving lines of the frame looks equally at home in modern and traditional interiors. Lorfords Contemporary is based in the Cotswolds and creates luxury bespoke furniture using traditional upholstery.
