Rare burr maple triptych mirror, from the renowned company Miroir Brot of Paris. Circa 1900.

This lovely mirror retains its original decorative fabric to the outside and solid brass-framed mirrors to the inside. It bears the Brot label in two places.

The mirror stand has elegant and discreet carved detailing and rests on outswept legs which are also beautifully carved and terminate on castors. This piece is reminiscent of the Biedermeier style.

The famous Miroir Brot was established in 1826 by Francois Brot in the heart of Old Paris. In 1875 Brot created and patented his revolutionary triptych mirror, which immediately gained worldwide recognition.

This mirror is in wonderful condition, but given its age and use it is not suitable for approval delivery.
