Edwardian Club Fender BONHAMS

£2,800.00

W: 155 cm (62")
H: 62 cm (24 7/16")
D: 58 cm (22 13/16")

Edwardian wrought-iron club fender, circa 1910.

Club fenders originated in England in the 18th Century, as a form of fireside seating in "club rooms" where cards and billiards were played.

They became particularly popular at the end of the 19th Century and throughout the Edwardian period.

This example is of heavy gauge and in excellent condition. On a substantial stepped base.

Lovely authentic country house piece which will bring great character to any living area.

Materials & Techniques: Iron
Condition: Good
Period: 20th Cent
