Totally refurbished Howard & Sons sofa, in the timeless Chesterfield style.

The sofa has been completely reupholstered in the traditional manner and with the materials used by the original company. It is covered with the iconic Howard-style ticking.

Resting on turned walnut legs, which are stamped with the maker's mark. Terminating on their original lacquered brass cup castors. The original Howard fabric label has also been left visible to the underside.

Howard & Sons, established in 1820, revolutionised upholstered furniture and established a never-before-seen level of comfort and luxury.

Their sofas and armchairs combine sturdy frames with stylish silhouettes, and their timeless style is a compliment to any interior.

For this sofa, their expertise is combined with an already established style icon: the Chesterfield.

With armrests that finish in line with the back, and of course the deeply buttoned upholstery, this piece is a meeting of great designs and a truly fantastic item to have in one's home.
