

OF1511537

Gentleman's Equestrian Shaving Mirror

£850.00

W: 40 cm (15 3/4")
H: 145 cm (57 1/16")
D: 43 cm (16 15/16")

Rare example of a gentleman's shaving mirror. Circa 1900.

This remarkable mirror displays high-quality turned construction to the tripod, column pedestal, and mirror plate, which gives it a very eye-catching form.

The adjustable mirror itself is in the form of a horseshoe with metal studding and there is a small table beneath. This mirror also has candle-holders.

This is a lovely piece of domestic history and offers a fascinating insight into male grooming history.

Materials & Techniques: Brass, Fruitwood, Mirror
Condition: Good
Period: 19th Cent

