Superb quality set of eight English Regency rosewood dining chairs, with perfect caned seats.

The craftsmanship and uniformity on this set of chairs is second to none and they demonstrate Regency furniture at its finest.

From 1800, rosewood was a popular choice for cabinet-making as exotic timbers became fashionable.

These chairs have stunning slender curved backs, with turned and reeded front legs and splayed back legs.

Gadrooned carving over the crested rail, which features decorative scroll carving. Each with an open back and single horizontal splat featuring carved leaves and a central floral rosette.

This set would look fantastic in any dining room and present the perfect opportunity to incorporate the timeless Regency style into your home.
