

TC9011651

17th Century French Folding Table

£1,400.00

W: 117 cm (46 1/16")
H: 72 cm (28 3/8")
D: 75 cm (29 1/2")

A very rustic and characterful 17th Century French pine and fruitwood folding table.

This is a charming example of the French provincial style. In the 17th Century, the necessity for moveable furniture that stemmed from the unrest of the Middle Ages remained a consideration.

This table stands on its original folding base for ease of movement and functionality.

It would have been crafted by a menuisier- French carpenters who created simple pieces of furniture from local wood.

This is the perfect piece for creating the 'shabby chic' feel of rural France in your home.

Materials & Techniques: Fruitwood, Pine
Condition: Good
Period: 18th Cent and Earlier

