Charming 18th Century Swedish bureau bookcase.

This piece is perfect for a range of interiors due to its small proportions, and would make an excellent feature piece in a room or nook.

It offers numerous functions and means of storage. Glazed doors to the top open to reveal storage shelves, whilst the fold down bureau to the front has a fitted interior complete with small drawers and open shelves.

Below are two further drawers, perfect for hiding away the clutter of modern life!

This wonderful piece features a traditional bonnet top and rests on bracket feet.
