18th Century Oak and Ash Windsor Rocking Chair

£750.00

W: 50 cm (19 11/16")
H: 86 cm (33 7/8")
D: 53 cm (20 7/8")

From West Yorkshire, this chair has the primitive feel of a locally sourced piece. The seat is made from oak and has the usual cracking often associated with the period oak. The ash sticks and steam bent hoop also show signs of old wear and tear. Great colour with an old patina. Circa 1780.

Materials & Techniques: Ash, Oak
Condition: Good
Period: 18th Cent and Earlier
