Pair of Louis XVI style green painted fauteuils, late 19th Century.

This lovely pair adopt the sturdy construction of the early Louis XVI manner.

They feature arched backs with bold floral cresting and husk pendants to the frames. With padded armrests on scrolling reeded arm terminals.

The frames are carved throughout with laurels and palmettes, as well as floral and trellis patterns.

These fauteuils are supported on turned and tapering circular fluted legs, with rosette motifs to the heads.

This pair represent an eye-catching classic model in the Louis XVI style, and they have great character.

In sound condition, with bold floral upholstery.
