

BU2013454

19th Century Sideboard

£2,400.00

W: 226 cm (89")
H: 86 cm (33 7/8")
D: 51 cm (20 1/16")

Mid 19th Century sideboard, made from Chinese elm.

With its low and long proportions, this sideboard is the perfect storage piece and will blend well within a range of interiors.

Chinese elm is most commonly found in the tropical southern regions and was favoured among furniture-makers for its high structural strength.

This sideboard is of pure and simple style, with thick frames surrounding the four doors. One long shelf to the interior.

Featuring distinctive door clasps with metal ring handles. The distressed white paint applied to the elm adds to the charm and authenticity of this piece.

Materials & Techniques: Metalwork, Wood
Condition: Good
Period: 19th Cent

