This limited edition engraving is a signed artist's proof by Cassandra Einstein.

This is a great piece of fashion history. Henri Bendel was an iconic New York fashion designer, whose landmark store in New York was in operation from the turn of the 20th Century for over one hundred years.

Bendel's became a symbol of luxury for New York's elite, and this is a lovely memento to that status.

Cassandra Einstein is an American figurative artist. Ms. Einstein studied painting with Richard Ruben at Chouinard Art Institute in Los Angeles, and also studied film with Don Duga at the School of Visual Arts in New York.

This engraving offers the perfect wall art for a boudoir or dressing room.
