

WD4114502

Late 19th Century Byobu Screen

£3,600.00

W: 264 cm (103 15/16")
H: 139 cm (54 3/4")
D: 3 cm (1 3/16")

Absolutely stunning late 19th Century Japanese Byobu screen.

Comprised of six folds, this screen is extensively decorated with painted and gilded scenes of the Gion Festival in Kyoto.

The scenes portray a procession of figures walking through the streets past stylised buildings and temples.

The details are surrounded by a backdrop of gilded clouds and set within a detailed border.

This screen has immense decorative power and will have a magical presence in any interior.

Materials & Techniques: Paint, Paper
Condition: Excellent
Period: 19th Cent

