French 19th Century Pâtisserie Table

£2,800.00

W: 79 cm (31 1/8")
H: 74 cm (29 1/8")
D: 60 cm (23 5/8")

Beautiful French 19th Century pâtisserie table.

This table retains its original white marble top and brass castors. The top is supported on an elaborate base of scrolling wrought-iron with decorative brass roundels.

Pâtisserie tables were used for displaying edible goods in the shop window and enticing customers in, so their appearance mattered. Today, these tables are hugely decorative additions to any interior.

With slimmer proportions than most examples, making this a useful side or console table.
