

WD7615188

Botanical Engraving attributed to Prévost

£750.00

W: 52 cm (20 1/2")
H: 42 cm (16 9/16")
D: 3 cm (1 3/16")

French late 18th Century monochrome stipple engraving, attributed to Jean Louis Prevost.

This single engraving on laid paper depicts a basket of flowers.

Jean Louis Prévost (1760-1810) was a renowned botanical printer. He was celebrated for both his watercolour and oil paintings as well as his engravings.

This simple yet beautiful engraving is mounted in a hand-decorated silver-gilt frame.

Materials & Techniques: Printed
Condition: Good
Period: 18th Cent and Earlier

