Stunning Edwardian wingback armchair.

This chair has great scale and proportions, with enclosing wings and a deep seat supported on square legs.

It is covered in hundreds of Royal Navy tally ribbons and an officer's uniform. The ribbons across the chair back state the name of different ships.

The navy and gold shades throughout as well as buttons to the back and sides give this chair a great regal presence.

This chair is not only a classic seating option but its unique fabric covering tells a great personal story.
