Stunning 18th Century Kentian period carved and gilded mirror.

This fine English mirror is extensively decorated in the rococo style, giving it immense impact.

It has a cartouche form with an elaborate gilded surround. The frame features a prominently carved shell to the bottom surrounded by acanthus.

The sides are carved with cornucopia and trailing flowers, and the top is adorned with a central basket of flowers.

Fitted with a later mirror plate with beautiful foxing.

This opulent mirror will make a wonderful feature in any interior.
