Wonderful Swedish 18th Century Gustavian buffet.

This decorative buffet has been scraped back to its original paint, in an attractive shade of pale green.

The two reeded central doors are flanked by reeded concave doors on either side. The doors open to reveal several spacious shelves.

Resting on later made square tapering reeded block feet. This buffet retains its original hardware, including large iron handles to each side.

This buffet a great storage piece for today's home, which is full of authentic character.
