Pair of 18th Century Venetian Mirrored Wall Sconces £2,150.00

W: 42 cm (16 9/16")

Stunning pair of Venetian mirrored candle sconces, circa 1770.

These sconces feature beautiful gilded frames with asymmetric foliate decoration. They retain their original mercury mirror plates and both frames and mirrors have the most incredible wear and patina.

This is an exceptional pair. The light from the mirrors produces almost pooled reflections and as a pair they have an immense decorative quality.

It is amazing to think these have survived a quarter of a millennium. They are understandably very fragile and need to be hung and admired in a special setting.

Diameter: 27cm.
