

ST7815722

Morris & Co 'Hampton Court' Piano Stool

£650.00

W: 58 cm (22 13/16")
H: 70 cm (27 9/16")
D: 30 cm (11 13/16")

Early 20th Century 'Hampton Court' mahogany piano stool by Morris & Co.

This smart stool features armrests with wide central splats that extend down below the seat.

Terminating in upturned pad feet and supported with a substantial stretcher.

The hinged lid / seat is covered with a William Morris fabric and lifts up to reveal storage.

Useful and timeless piece, ideal for desk or side seating or for its original purpose!

Morris & Co was founded in 1861 by William Morris, a leading figure in the Arts & Crafts movement, and his associates. Their aim was to provide beautiful, useful and hand-crafted designs to improve quality of life.

They became famous for their beautiful fabrics and wallpapers and the designs still carry an enormous resonance today.

Materials & Techniques: Mahogany
Condition: Good
Period: 20th Cent

