

DA9016111

G. J. Lines Nursery Rocking Horse

£2,450.00

W: 120 cm (47 1/4")
H: 104 cm (40 15/16")
D: 41 cm (16 1/8")

Wonderful 19th Century nursery rocking horse by G. J. Lines.

This charming horse features a wonderfully detailed head, with a dished face and flared nostrils.

He retains his original saddle and leather strapping to the bridle, as well as the martingale and metal rosettes. Mounted on a wooden base.

Exhibiting original dappled body paint and shellac decoration. This horse is in a good condition, with wear commensurate with age and a well-loved life.

The Lines family produced high quality rocking horses for almost a century, including many novel designs. George and Joseph Lines worked together from circa 1876 to develop G & J Lines. The company became one of the largest toy-makers in Britain.

This horse will bring a lovely whimsical accent to any interior and would make for a very special gift.

Materials & Techniques: Pine
Condition: Good
Period: 19th Cent

LOPES

nt
ds