'The Secret Wedding' oil and wax painting on board, by Tony Peart. 1989-90.

This wonderful painting depicts a bride and groom in the foreground coming through a gate. The groom looks up to a cemetery where a shadowy figure looks down on the couple.

Tony Peart (born 1961) is a British artist and teacher. He was born in Yorkshire and studied at the Cheltenham College of Art and then Leeds Polytechnic. He gained a Northern Arts Award and has participated in many group shows.

Peart's work focuses on the English countryside and rural pursuits, often incorporating an element of fantasy as seen in this painting.

Presented in a simple wooden frame, with the artist's inscription verso and retaining its gallery label.

This fascinating painting will be a brilliant feature in any interior.
