Large English mid 19th Century mahogany pedestal desk.

This desk is stamped Westminster London.

The top is inset with gilt-tooled black leather and features a decorative gadrooned border. Each pedestal features four graduated drawers as well as a frieze drawer, all with decorative brass ring handles.

On one side these are real drawers, on the other side they are cupboard doors masquerading as drawers. On the faux drawer side the cupboards conceal plenty of document storage.

In very good condition with a fine aged patina.
