Impressive and large-scale English 19th Century breakfront bookcase.

This ebonised bookcase features attractive glazed doors to the top sections, with several spacious shelves inside and working locks.

The breakfront section of the base takes the form of a chest of drawers. It features two adjacent short drawers over four graduated ones, all with ebonised handles.

This central section is flanked on either side by cupboards with recessed arched panels and further storage inside.

The totally ebonised form of this bookcase is unusual and incredibly striking. It will be a fantastic addition to a period or contemporary interior.
