Highly decorative Italian 19th Century ebony and tortoiseshell cabinet on stand.

This striking cabinet features an ebony framework with a gallery of turned balustrades, bone roundels and decorative finials to the top, which can simply lift off for a more simple look.

The display section features pretty glazed doors that enclose an interior with intricate parquetry shelves and a rich red silk. Veneered red tortoiseshell adorns the sections around the doors and the sides, studded with steel pins and ebony glazing bars.

The whole rests on an ebonised stand with bobbin turned supports and a stretcher.

A gorgeous decorative cabinet, worthy of your most treasured display pieces and a work of art in itself.
