English 19th Century ebonised serving or side table by Heal & Son.

This charming table dates to the aesthetic period. The simple unpainted rectangular top rests over a substantial ebonised base. The deep frieze offers a single long drawer with original decorative handles.

Supported on four chunky turned baluster legs.

Heal's have delivered functional furniture to improve the lives of ordinary people since 1810. Sir Ambrose Heal's legacy is perhaps one of the greatest in furniture retail history.

A wonderful and versatile piece for any interior.
