

DA1516531

Pair of French Iron Garden Armchairs

£495.00

W: 57 cm (22 7/16")
H: 88 cm (34 5/8")
D: 60 cm (23 5/8")

Pair of French Mid Century handmade iron garden armchairs.

These fabulous and unusual chairs were handmade by a coal miner in the once famed mining town of Alès in the Ardeche after the Second World War.

They have generous proportions, with geometric tapering backs featuring gorgeous scroll decoration.

With bold scrolled armrests and circular seats resting over four legs with circular stretchers.

The frames feature unusual and very decorative twist details throughout.

These chairs retain the most wonderful deep green paint with a good amount of wear and patina.

A gorgeous pair for an outdoor space or an orangery setting.

Materials & Techniques: Iron
Condition: Excellent
Period: 20th Cent

