French 19th Century still life of shells.

This charming still life depicts a collection of shells that vary in colour and shape.

Beautiful oil on wood painting with a carved, wooden frame. Original structure from the Napoleon III period.

The painting has small signs of restoration on the reverse from minor structural damages which have been repaired.

This wonderful painting has a lot of depth and technique and shall add character to any interior.

Shall be a great addition to a gallery corner.
