17th Century Carved Figure of a Saint

£2,450.00

W: 30 cm (11 13/16")
H: 114 cm (44 7/8")
D: 28 cm (12")

Mid 17th Century Northern European carved figure of a saint.

This striking statue depicts a saint who is dressed in robes, whilst holding his hand over his heart. This figure is freestanding and is stood within a leaning position which makes him stand out.

It has been beautifully carved from oak and has remnants of its original paintwork.

Likely to have stood within a church for many years and would have been removed due to renovation reasons.

This historical figure will make for a brilliant feature within any home.
