Scottish Oak Refectory Table

£2,800.00

W: 290 cm (114 3/16")
H: 76 cm (29 15/16")
D: 88 cm (34 5/8")

Impressive English oak refectory table that will seat 10-12 people.

This wonderful table is of great size. It has a fantastic rich, original patina and colour.

The thick planked top rests over a base comprising of two legs at each end which is unusual for a table of this size. Typically, large refectory tables have a third leg to the centre which acts as a support leg. This particular table has been re-worked to improve its corner strength and stability so there is no need for the third leg support.

The top of this table can be removed from the base for ease of movement.

It will make for a wonderful dining table because of its size and timeless style.
