

DA2019651

19th Century Camphor Wood Chest £1,750.00

W: 122 cm (49")
H: 62 cm (24 7/16")
D: 61 cm (25")

Lovely camphor wood chest with its original brass mouldings.

Camphor was the wood of choice for such trunks, this is because of its naturally sweet-smelling qualities which make perfect storage for traditional luxuries such as silk, tea, and fine china.

The top of this chest is decorated with brass corners which are all original to the piece.

The hinged lid lifts to reveal a spacious and moderately deep interior.

The camphor wood on the interior has a great mix of natural colours, which are emphasised by polished exterior.

This trunk would make a great blanket box to store your seasonal comforters and linens.

Materials & Techniques: Pine
Condition: Good
Period: 19th Cent

