Large painted picture on canvas called "A London Day" by Helen McKie.

This picture depicts a number of small scenes that include no more than two characters to each. The scenes include a wedding, a lady walking her dog, a flower seller, and more!

In a regal style, this picture is full of colour and is very eye-catching because of its joyful expressions and palette. To both corners, there are character representations of royal 'Beefeaters', therefore adding to its regal presence.

It is of very large proportions, making it a great addition for placing above a sofa or in a hallway.
