Early 18th Century Mahogany Breakfront Bookcase £24,000.00

W: 205 cm (80 11/16")
H: 243.5 cm (95 7/8")
D: 51 cm (20 1/16")

Very fine quality 18th Century breakfront bookcase suitable for a grand house drawing room.

This is an especially fine example of the earlier Georgian period and it has the attributes of the period such as fine dense timber. Large hand-cut dovetails, oak-lined drawers with very precise details and panel construction and really good solid bracket feet.

A superb bookcase that would suit both contemporary and traditional interiors!
