

DA019849

19th Century Cuba Pattern Dinner Service £1,100.00

W: 46 cm (18 1/8")
H: 3 cm (1 3/16")
D: 37 cm (14 9/16")

Victorian hand coloured transfer printed bone china Dinner Service made by John Goodmans of Stoke-on-Trent, circa 1875, in rare 'Cuba' pattern, the transfer printed design with Anglo-Japanese influences, comprising a soup tureen and cover, a pair of vegetable dishes and covers, a sauce tureen and saucer, a large oval comport, a large ashet, three small ashets, eleven dinner plates, eleven fish plates and nine soup plates. Various sizes, dimension shown is the largest Platter.

Materials & Techniques: Ash
Condition: Good
Period: 19th Cent

