

C0035281

19th Century Althorp Hall Mahogany Console Table £2,900.00

W: 121 cm (47 5/8")
H: 81 cm (31 7/8")
D: 56 cm (22 1/16")

George IV well carved mahogany console table. The egg and dart moulded back above a grey and white veined marble top. The bold acanthus carved frieze with concealed drawers to either end, on turned and gadrooned supports with fluted pilasters to the rearms. Raised on a shaped plinth base with moulded edge. Provenance: Earl Spencer, Althorp Hall, contents sale 1963. Supplied with the last owners purchase invoice from 1997.

Materials & Techniques: Mahogany Condition: Good
Period: 19th Cent
Leg Clearance: 0.000000

g

Gloucestershire GL8 8AQ
T: 01666 505 111

Babdown Airfield, Gloucestershire GL8 8YL
T: 01666 503970/502199