Five Armed Brutalist Chandelier with Pure Copper Shades £1,850.00

W: 35 cm (13 3/4")
H: 75 cm (29 1/2")
D: 35 cm (13 3/4")

A dramatic piece of Brutalist lighting, very much in the style of Tom Greene's torch cut designs of 1970. Comprising of five rectangular copper shades, of the same size, hanging at varying levels, from a copper centre piece. A fantastic example of Brutalism, from the clear exhibition of structure and materials to the warmth of the light itself.

Condition: Good
Period: 20th Cent
