Charming French 19th Century painted chest of drawers.

This chest has a very attractive form and proportions.

The top features re-entrant corners and moulded edges. Below are two short drawers and two long drawers, all flanked by projecting panelled corners.

Each drawer with decorative panelling and metal rosette handles, as well as a central rosette mount to the bottom drawer.

With lovely old green and cream paint.

This is a characterful and endearing storage option for today's home.
